Duties and Terms of Reference

The mandate of the Mixed Commission on Cameroon and Nigeria (CNMC) is to ensure the peaceful implementation of the judgment of the ICJ (International Court of Justice) and to prevent related tension between Cameroon and Nigeria from escalating into conflict.

In this complex and sensitive environment, the CNMC would benefit from the work of a Civilian Observers with strong knowledge of the mandate of the CNMC as well as expertise in supporting national peace initiatives.

UNOWAS is entrusted with the overall mandate of enhancing the contributions of the UN towards the achievement of peace and security in West Africa and the Sahel. This includes governance, mainstreaming security sector reform into development strategies, defining an integrated sub regional approach to humanitarian, human rights and gender issues, curbing corruption, poverty alleviation, addressing youth unemployment as well as cross-border illicit trafficking and organized crime. These emerging destabilizing issues can be considered as new threats to security.

Under the overall guidance of the Special Representative of the UN Secretary-General (SRSG) and Chairman of Nigeria and Cameroun Mixed Commission, the Civilian Observer will be responsible for the following duties:

- Lead or participate in the formulation, organization and management of mandated programmes of economic analysis and the formulation of possible economic strategies, policies and actions relating to the work of the Mixed Commission and UNOWAS;
- Developing projects to promote joint economic ventures and cross-border cooperation etc.
- Analyzing and assessing the implications of the ICJ decision including the need to protect the rights of the affected population in both countries; prepare analytical reports including recommendations on solutions and/or possible action.

- Assist in the development of additional confidence-building measures, including liaising with and coordinating meetings, on a regular basis, between UN agencies, local authorities, representative of the Mixed Commission, NGOs.
- Lead or participate in the identification of new or emerging development issues of potential concern to the international community, particularly those of a regional or global nature, and design and develop programmes to address them;
- Conceive, plan and manage expert group meetings, seminars and similar consultations that contribute to the finalization of the work office's outputs; prepare advisory meetings with the parties on national development and environmental initiatives in the Bakassi peninsula.
- Finalize reports on socio-economic and development for submission to the CNMC and UNOWAS;
- Identify and follow up community development projects in Cameroon and Nigeria.
- Participate, develop and support project evaluations, including data collection design, tools, and implementation; data analysis and qualitative assessments.
- Regularly produce reports documenting assistance to the affected population and Cameroon and Nigeria development projects along the land boundary and in Bakassi.
- Provide up-to-date information to senior officials and colleagues, regarding substantive economic matters and country or regional issues and make recommendations on actions to take.
- Maintain contacts with other sectors of the UN, other international organizations and governments on coordination and policy matters; brief representatives and provide, as appropriate suggestions and recommendations.
- Perform other related duties as required.

Competencies:

- Professionalism: Ability to apply economics theories and concepts in different sectors of economic and sustainable development.
